State Development & Redevelopment Plan Update

Hosted by the New Jersey Conference of Mayors, the New Jersey State Planning Commission, and the Center for Urban Policy Research and the Alan M Voorhees Transportation Center at Rutgers Edward J Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy

The New Jersey State Planning Commission is currently updating the 2001 New Jersey State Development and Redevelopment Plan (SDRP).

As part of this effort, the Office of Planning Advocacy—along with the New Jersey Conference of Mayors (NJCM) and the Rutgers Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy—will present an overview of the SDRP to mayors and seek additional feedback from NJCM members.

Presentation Details

June 17, 2025

8:30-11:30 AM

Rutgers Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy

33 Livingston Ave., New Brunswick, NJ 08901

Speaker: Walter Lane

Acting Executive Director of the Office of Planning Advocacy

Moderator: Mayor Janice Mironov

East Windsor Township

Topics will include how the draft SDRP can support municipalities in advancing their local planning priorities. A Q&A session will follow, giving mayors the opportunity to provide feedback on the Plan's goals and strategies. These insights will help guide revisions to the current draft and inform the NJCM's position as the SDRP moves toward finalization.

Light breakfast and refreshments will be provided.

For any questions, please contact the NJCM Offices at njcm@njcm.org or (609) 989-9216.
Scan the QR code or visit bit.ly/43hpLTp to RSVP by June 10.
